

Brick Lane Circle

Back to results

Brick Lane Circle organises events / conferences / seminars / exhibitions / entertainment events to promote knowledge seeking, research and improved understanding about Bangladesh and Bangladeshis abroad. Tower Hamlets has the highest concentration of Bangladeshi origin people in the UK and Brick Lane Circle grew up and is based in the vicinity of the historical street called Brick Lane.

Since October 2010 Brick Lane Circle has been organising an annual Bengal History Week in East London. It is designed to help generate and expand interest in learning Bengal's history and introduce historians and scholars to new audiences in non-academic settings.

Most of the organisation's activities are based in Tower Hamlets.
